

WEBMASTERING I

Mid-term Review

1. Two ways links can be created are:
 - A. _____
 - B. _____
2. _____ includes being professional and polite, not typing in all caps, being aware of the other person's feelings, and not stealing while using the Internet.
3. Copyright laws protect the _____ of a piece of original work.
4. A _____ interprets HTML code and presents the final web page.
5. _____ protects teachers, students, and critics with regard to using creative work.
6. URL stands for _____.
7. A program used to help you find web sites pertaining to a particular subject, based upon keywords or phrases is called a _____.
8. CPU stands for _____.
9. ISP stands for _____.
10. To start a web page, use this tag _____
11. To begin the body, use the following tag _____
12. To change the background color, use the following tag _____
13. When creating a "good" web site, the three things you should consider are:
 1. download time
 2. validity of information
 3. images that add value.
14. What is the extension associated with a non-profit organization? _____ an academic institution?
_____ with a military organization? _____
15. GIF animations are _____.
16. When creating a table, tags go in what order? _____
17. If you want to stretch a cell horizontally, use the _____ tag.
18. HTML stands for _____
19. What does FTP mean? _____
20. What is called to sketching out your planning phase of a webpage? _____

21. A _____ tells you how many times your site has been visited.
22. _____ is a network of connected computers.
23. _____ is a program that enables you to correct or remove flaws from photographs or graphics, enhance colors, change size of graphics, and/or layer graphics.
24. The program we have used to create our webpages is _____.
25. To view our html code as it would look as a webpage, we have viewed it in a _____, and the one we've used is Internet Explorer.
38. You can _____ by adding a shadow, glow, bevel or emboss special effect from the program's collection of automated layer effects .
39. The _____ tag starts a table row.
40. The tags used to indicate an item in a list are _____
41. In order to close a tag, you must have a _____ character in the tag
42. What tag do you use to link to "mypage.html"? _____
43. The standard portion of copyrighted material that may be used without permission is _____%.
44. Can you use MS Word to open an image? _____
45. Can tables have invisible and visible borders? _____
46. How many cells does the table have? _____

```

<table>
  <tr>
    <td width="100">hey</td>
    <td width="100">hey hey </td>
  </tr>
</table>

```

47. Can you add color to separate cells in a table, but not to individual rows? _____
48. An efficient way to work with layers is by _____ two or more of them together.
49. The primary page at a Web site is usually named _____ or _____ with either an htm or html ending.
50. HTML documents are just text files that can be written in even the simplest _____
51. The _____ extension on the end of the filename indicates that it is a native PhotoShop file.
52. What does the small black triangle in the bottom right hand corner of the button the Photoshop tools do? _____

53. Consider the HTML below, is the following code correct?

```
<html>
<head>
<!--What goes in this section? -->
</head>
<body>
<!-- This What goes in this section? -->
</body>
</html>
```

54. A _____ tool is a gradual transition between one or more colors. In Photoshop, you can control the type of transition using the this tool.

55. To add rows to your tables use which tags? _____

56. The names of the two types of cells are _____ and _____?

57. To add a heading to your tables use which tags? _____

58. Is there a difference between how a <th> tag and a <td> tag displays? _____

59. Do you need the </table> tag? _____

60. Why do web designers use tables with invisible borders? _____

61. Does the W3C develop standards for the WWW? _____

62. Know what are the opening four main foundation tags are in an HTML web page and the correct order? _____

63. How do you duplicate a selection before moving it? What key do you hold down to drag to the desired location? _____

64. Know the important facts to save an HTML page

- Should spaces should be used? _____
- Should capital letters should be used? _____
- What are the file extension names to be used? _____

65. Know what the difference between sans serif and serif. What types of fonts are sans serif and serif. _____

66. Know what to do with layers like:

- How to rearrange them
- What happens to the image when you move the layers
- Link them, how to and why do you link them

67. Know why you use the copy merged _____

68. Is it necessary to save a copy of your original file including all layers? _____

